1 I am pleased to inform you that you have been admitted into the above programme. If you accept the offer, you are hereby advised to pay 50% of the total fees in order to be registered. The total fees is ZWL$317,152. 00 and medical aid fees of (To be Advised) which is paid separately into the University bank account.

Fees payments can be made into the following bank accounts:.

Orientation and registration of new students will commence on 27 February 2023. You will only be allowed to attend classes and to have access to university facilities once you have completed registration procedures. You are also advised to bring with you a laptop for use in online learning and accessing e-library resources.

Verification of your certificates shall be carried out to determine your suitability to enroll for this programme before you can be registered as a student. In this regard, you are required to bring original and certified copies of your national identity document, birth certificate, 'O' and 'A' level certificates or a statement of results (where applicable) as well as a copy of your acceptance letter for verification.

The University has very limited accommodation which is allocated on a first-come-first-serve basis upon payment of full fees. Accordingly, those offered accommodation are required to pay accommodation fees. The university does not provide bedding material and utensils for use in student hostels hence you are supposed to bring your own. Students can purchase meals from the University canteens.

2 Please note that this offer of admission is provisional and the University reserves the right to withdraw the offer if you fail to meet the conditions set out in this letter.

On behalf of the University, I wish to congratulate you for being accepted into the programme. I hope your studies will be fruitful and worthwhile.
